PREPARE YOUR INQUIRY

Bring the details. We'll start there.

01 Share the details

Tell us the pickup and destination, shipment type and preferred date.

02 Talk it through

Discuss your requirements and questions directly with the business.

03 Confirm the next step

Receive confirmation of any scope, pricing and availability before proceeding.

GOOD QUESTIONS

Before you reach out.

Can I request a quote?

Yes. Call or email with your shipment details to request a discussion. Pricing, availability and service suitability must be confirmed by the business.

Which routes and shipment types are available?

Please ask Swenzy about your specific pickup, destination and shipment requirements. This preview does not list confirmed routes or equipment capabilities.

Is an inquiry a confirmed booking?

No. Sending an inquiry or speaking with the AI assistant does not reserve transportation or confirm pricing.

What should I include?

Your contact details, pickup and destination, shipment type, approximate size or weight, requested date and preferred callback method.

YOUR INFORMATION

Privacy Policy.

Preview policy · September 2026
Pending business review.

01

About this policy

This preview policy explains the tools on this website. It is a draft pending business review, including retention periods and applicable privacy requirements.

02

Contacting Swenzy

Contacting the business: if you call or email Swenzy Logistics, the information you share can be used to respond to your inquiry. Do not send financial details, government identifiers or other sensitive information.

03

Website inquiry form

Website form: lead delivery is currently disabled. Completing this form does not send a lead. When configured and approved, Web3Forms will process the contact and shipment information you choose to submit. During an authorized internal test, notifications will be directed to Red Spectrum's confirmed test inbox, not the business.

04

Myndy AI assistant

AI assistant: the Myndy widget is embedded on Swenzy pages. Loading it connects your browser to Myndy; messages or voice interactions you choose to initiate may be processed by Myndy. AI responses may be inaccurate and do not confirm a quote, booking or availability. Do not share sensitive information. The website preview does not imply that the provider agent's knowledge has been approved.

05

Technical information

Technical data: website hosting and third-party services may process connection information needed to serve the website and widget. No separate marketing analytics or advertising tags have been added to this customer website.

06

Questions & requests

Questions: contact rs@swenzylogistics.net with privacy questions or requests. Specific retention periods and handling procedures must be confirmed by the business before launch.
